Mr. Newman;

Thank you for your generosity in selling my coins!

As I expressed to you on the phone, I would certainly wish to re-emburse you for your expertise. If by chance there is a coin you would like, please also feel free to take it.

I purchased two coin books; NEW PHOTOGRADE and A GUIDE BOOK OF U.S.COINS, and found your name in one of them. Frank Block has told me many times what an authority you are in this field and I was surprized and yet not so to find your name in my book. Actually, I know of no other time, where I have looked in a technical book and have met one of the experts.

I will abide by your decisions wether to sell some of these coins for silver value only and at which time.

You asked me about 1/2 cent pieces, which I am fairly certain I have seen in my collection, but they must be in my bags of old pennies, nickels and dimes. I felt you are overburdened already with all these silver coins, so I did not go through all the other coins. I will do with them what you advise me to do.

I would be very happy to do any and all legwork or other actual work involved with this endeavor. Please, Mr. Newman, be so kind and tell me HOW I may help to take some of this burden from you.

Thanking you in advance, Mr. Newman, I remain, gratefully;

Dagmar

Dear Dagmar:

You turned over to us for sale some of your coins and we told you that we were willing to sell them for you without any charge because we were asked by a friend to help you. We will try to get the best price which we hope to do and are proceeding to do so.

The list of coins turned over to us for disposition has valuations which we told you were unrealistic and far in excess of realizable value. The condition of the coins received is very worn. You apparently retained the nicer pieces.

We thought it best to repeat this by letter as we told you orally.

We hope we have been and will be helpful.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman
President

Dear Mr Newman -

I wanted to thank you in person before I went to Calif. but time is running out.

I will be back August 15th. until August 21st when I'm leaving for Europe.

Will you allow me to invite you and Frank Block for lunch during that time to show you my appreciation for the trouble you have taken?

Sincerely,

Dagmar
